Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The best history teachers make the past come alive for their students; and,

Whereas, Vikki Hasche of Arlington Elementary School in Arlington, South Dakota, demonstrates daily what it takes to effectively teach students history; and,

Whereas, Mrs. Hasche gives her students the opportunity through her "Wax Museum Project" to learn about and portray famous South Dakotans, both from the past and the present; and,

Whereas, With such projects, Mrs. Hasche meets her goal of helping her students achieve growth both personally and scholastically; and,

Whereas, Mrs. Hasche was named the 2004 Elementary Teacher of the Year, one of the Governor's Awards for History, by the South Dakota State Historical Society, and the 2004 South Dakota Preserve America History Teacher of the Year:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 16, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I call upon the citizens of this state to join me in recognizing and participating in this special observance.

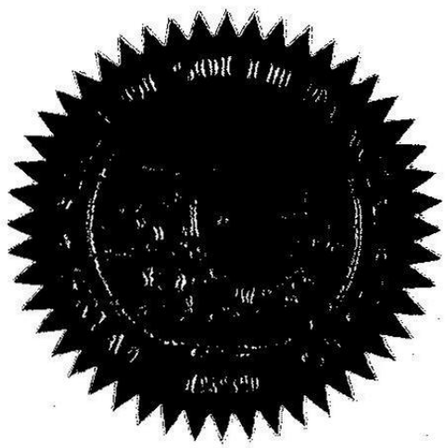
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.



M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
